> I am proud to announce that the presenters for our next Leaders National Advocacy Call on Tuesday, August 28th at 6:00p (est), we have Megan French-Marcelin, who is JLUSA's Fair Hiring Project Coordinator, Lester Young, #WORKINGfuture Campaign Southern organizer and Quintin Williams LwC 2018 Fellow, and Stephanie Regagnon, LwC 2018 Fellow.
>
> This webinar will be an opportunity to talk about JLUSA's #WORKINGfuture campaign buildout as well as the intersections between economic justice and criminal justice reform. There will be a specific discussion about the House Farm Bill (SNAP) that will adversely affect low-income people.
>
> There are 48,000 laws and statutes that create barriers to employment, housing, and education, among other things, for people with records. The #WORKINGfuture campaign seeks to eradicate the intentional laws that keep people with records in a state of perpetual second class citizenship.
>
> The conversation will be educational as well as an opportunity to brainstorm strategies for amplifying the voices of those most harmed by collateral consequences nationwide. Come join us and add your voice to the conversation. Check your inbox for the calendar invite.
